WellStead Mental Health Opens New Sarasota Clinic, Expanding Access to Comprehensive Mental Health Care

Sarasota, FL – December 15, 2025 – WellStead Mental Health, a leading provider of psychiatric and therapeutic services founded in Tallahassee, proudly announces the grand opening of its new Sarasota office at 2621 Cattlemen Road, Suite 204, Sarasota, FL 34232, bringing compassionate, evidence-based mental health care to patients in Sarasota and the surrounding community.

Since its founding in Tallahassee, WellStead Mental Health has grown into a multidisciplinary team of more than 40 providers, with two established locations in Tallahassee and an additional clinic in Orlando.

The Sarasota clinic will offer a full spectrum of mental health services, delivered by a team of experienced clinicians committed to providing personalized, compassionate, and evidence-based care to the Sarasota community and surrounding areas.

WellStead Mental Health is pleased to offer a comprehensive range of services at the new Sarasota location, including:

- Psychiatric evaluation and treatment
- Psychological assessment and testing
- Individual, couples, and family therapy
- TMS (Transcranial Magnetic Stimulation) for depression and other conditions

“Our team is excited to welcome patients to our new Sarasota office,” said Dr. Nicholas McKinnon, psychiatrist at WellStead Mental Health. “We are committed to providing compassionate, evidence-based care in a setting where individuals and families feel heard, supported, and empowered on their mental health journey.”

Dr. Jeffrey Ferraro, company Co-founder and Chief Medical Officer, added: “The Sarasota clinic reflects our ongoing commitment to expanding access to mental health services across Florida. We look forward to partnering with the local community to provide high-quality, patient-centered care close to home.”
"Opening our Sarasota clinic is an exciting milestone for WellStead Mental Health,” said Javier Malavé, Vice President of Operations. “Our team has worked thoughtfully to design a space and service model that prioritize access, efficiency, and an exceptional patient experience for individuals and families in this community. We are thrilled that Dr. Eader and Dr. McKinnon have chosen us to continue their journey of the past decade, taking care of the mental health needs of the Sarasota and Manatee communities."

The new Sarasota office is designed to provide a welcoming and healing space for patients and is conveniently situated to serve the local community and neighboring areas. The facility is now accepting new patients.
