WellStead Mental Health Opens New St. Augustine Office Near World Golf Village

St. Augustine, FL – October 19, 2026 - WellStead Mental Health, a leading provider of compassionate, evidence-based psychiatric and therapeutic care, proudly announces the opening of its new St. Augustine office at 101 E. Town Place, Suite 250, St. Augustine, FL 32092. Conveniently located near World Golf Village, the new office expands access to comprehensive outpatient mental health services for individuals and families in St. Augustine and surrounding communities.

Founded in Tallahassee, WellStead Mental Health has grown into a multidisciplinary organization with more than 40 providers and established locations in Tallahassee, Orlando, and Sarasota. The St. Augustine office represents the organization's continued commitment to making high-quality, patient-centered mental health care more accessible across Florida.

The new St. Augustine clinic will be staffed by psychiatrists, psychiatric nurse practitioners, and therapists working collaboratively to provide personalized, compassionate, and evidence-based care. The office will offer a comprehensive range of outpatient behavioral health services, including:

- Psychiatric evaluation and treatment
- Medication management
- Individual therapy
- Couples therapy

“We are proud to bring WellStead Mental Health’s compassionate, evidence-based approach to St. Augustine,” said Dr. Joy Frankel, Chief Clinical Officer/Chief Operating Officer of WellStead Mental Health. “Our psychiatrist, psychiatric nurse practitioners, and therapists will work collaboratively to provide personalized care that helps patients feel heard, supported, and confident in their path toward better mental health.”

Dr. Jeffrey Ferraro, Co-founder and Chief Medical Officer of WellStead Mental Health, added: “Opening this office near World Golf Village is an important step in expanding access to high-quality mental health care in Northeast Florida. We are excited to build a dedicated clinical team for the St. Augustine community and provide convenient, patient-centered psychiatric and therapeutic care close to home.”

The new office is designed to provide a welcoming, supportive environment for patients seeking outpatient mental health care. With its location near World Golf Village, the clinic offers convenient access for patients in St. Augustine and neighboring Northeast Florida communities. The facility is now accepting new patients.
